

IS MAC NEIGH FOR A PLACE?

A Chance That Sets Politicians to Speculating.

Three Cabinet Positions Still Remain to Be Filled.

The names of the men selected by Mr. Cleveland for Attorney-General, Secretary of the Navy and Secretary of Agriculture, the three remaining Cabinet positions to be filled by President-elect Cleveland, will not be announced for several days. Mr. Cleveland is in communication with the gentlemen to whom the portfolios have been offered. The delay is said to be on account of the Attorney-Generalship. It is believed to be Mr. Cleveland's earnest desire that Senator Gray, of Delaware, should enter his Cabinet, and that ex-Secretary Thomas F. Bazar should be elected to the Senate in his stead. Mr. Bazar would take the place in that body of Senator Carlisle as a leader and exponent of the President's policy.

The President-elect would also like to have Gov. Boies, of Iowa, in his official family. But the Iowa prefers to be Attorney-General. Mr. Cleveland, however, and there's the hitch. Don M. Dickinson is on his way West, and he may drop in to see Gov. Boies, and arrange with him to accept the position of Secretary of Agriculture.

Regarding the Secretaryship of the Navy, the chances of Congressman Hilary A. Herbert, of Alabama, are not considered very good now. Congressman National Committee-man Carlos French, of Connecticut, who was Gen. Hawley's opponent for the United States Senate, was most prominently mentioned to-day. Mr. French is a Democrat, and it is thought that Mr. Cleveland, as a consequence of Gresham's selection, might appoint Wayne MacVeigh, of Pennsylvania, as Attorney-General. He filled that position under President Garfield. Mr. MacVeigh, like Judge Gresham, left the Republican party to support Mr. Cleveland, and he is looked upon as a good Democrat now.

Hoke Smith, who accepted yesterday the Secretaryship of the Interior, is the original Cleveland man, of Georgia. At Chicago Mr. Smith won many votes for Mr. Cleveland, and the Georgia delegation went solidly for the President-elect. He is now the leader of the Cleveland forces in the Empire State of the South, and will be the dispenser of the Federal patronage there. Mr. Smith's connection with the Hampshire family. His great-grandfather was an officer under Washington, and his father was a professor in the University of North Carolina.

By profession Mr. Smith is a lawyer. He is also the editor of the Atlanta Journal. He entered politics at the age of twenty. He is thirty-eight years old.

POINTERS ON THE RACES.

But Little Excitement Offered at Guttenberg To-Day.

The Plungers May Make a Ten-Strike Betting.

The card at Guttenberg to-day contains the usual lot of "plungers" and "concoctions," the public will be a little interested in the contests.

Little Fred will be a prohibitive favorite in the second race, and so will Glance in the fifth. Greenwich and Register will also be held at short prices, and while the plungers may make money, the public will suffer by taking chances to beat the favorites.

Where racers look as if they would be certain winners for favorites, they are dull and uninteresting. It is only when half a dozen horses all appear to have a chance that any enthusiasm is aroused. The condition of affairs at Guttenberg might be amended by changes in conditions of races, but the Association prefers to cater to the "combination" rather than to the public.

The entries and selections, together with the betting as quoted in the pool rooms this morning, are:
